ABOUT WORKSHOP: Machine Learning is one of the essential fundamentals required to step into the rapidly emerging and upcoming era of Artificial Intelligence (AI). It is a scientific discipline that explores the construction and study of algorithms that can learn from data. Such algorithms operate by building a model from example inputs and using that to make predictions or decisions, Machine learning is closely related to and other workshop and the study of algorithms that can learn from data. Such and the study of algorithms that can learn from data. Such rather than following strictly static program instructions, Machine learning is closely related to and other workshop appecializes in prediction-making. Data processing requires "computational thinking" and is computational tools for problem-solving. This workshop amis to explore the recent development and vanuus machine learning aspects. This training is an introduction to the concept of Pathon. The workshop are Introduction to Statistics, Introduction to AI and Machine Learning, Examples of ML meal-time application, Machine learning, Examples of ML meal-time application, Machine learning, Catures Engineering, Regression, Classification, Unsupervised Model and Artificial Neural Networks. DBJECTIVES: This program alims to provide hands-on OBJECTIVES: This program aims to provide hands-on experience to the faculty, research scholars and students in the field of Machine Learning using Python. The program will help the participants to learn the principles of Machine Learning and understand how to apply Machine Learning for solving problems.

OUTSOMES This workshop will cover the basic algorithm that helps students, researchers, and faculty members to build and apple prediction functions with an emphasis on practical applications, attendees, at the end of this workshop, will be technically competent in the basics and the fundamental concepts of Machine Learning.
